Another fantastic release from the Rockpalast vaults, Michael Schenker absolutely tears it up on Hardrock Legends Vol. 2. Filmed in January 1981 in Hamburg, Germany, this performance features Gary Barden on vocals and the late, legendary Cozy Powell on drums, along with Chris Glen (bass) and Paul Raymond (keyboards). Blazing through seven of the nine songs from the iconic first MSG album and four songs from the guitarist's tenure with UFO, no one can deny the amazing talent collected in this band.

As a guitarist, I loved seeing the close-ups of Schenker's fingers flying up and down the fretboard during his solos, especially on "Into The Arena" and "Lookin' Out From Nowhere." Of course, no arena rock show would be complete without a fog machine, and they bring it out during the intro to "Lost Horizons." Of the four UFO songs played ("Natural Thing," "Rock Bottom," "Doctor Doctor," and "Lights Out") the best was "Lights Out"...although when it finished I really didn't want the lights to go out. And they didn't...I just started the DVD over so I could watch it again!

Tracklist:

(Intro)
 Armed And Ready
 Cry For The Nations
 Victim Of Illusions
 Natural Thing
 Feels Like A Good Thing
 Into The Arena
 Rock Bottom
 Lookin' Out From Nowhere
 Lost Horizons
 Doctor Doctor
 Lights Out

This DVD is a must-have for fans of MSG, UFO, and Rockpalast recordings. Sixty-four minutes of unadulterated, guitar-driven, hard arena rock. For those unfamiliar with Michael Schenker, this would be a good visual primer on his classic sound and ability.

The band:

Michael Schenker (guitar)
 Gary Barden (vocals)
 Chris Glen (bass)
 Paul Raymond (keyboards)
 Cozy Powell (drums)
