CHARLIE DANIELS BAND - Live At Rockpalast
Starring: Charlie Daniels Band; www.mvdvisual.com

Charlie Daniels' Rockpalast concert at Westfalenhalle opens with "Funky Junky", a sweeping and swinging song which wins the audience over right away. It is an entertaining feast for the ears and eyes to experience Charlie Daniels Band's 76 minute show which ends with a fiery nearly ten minute version of the country classic "Orange Blossom Special." Recorded in 1980.

THE BEATLES - STRANGE FRUIT: The Beatles' Apple Records

Starring: The Beatles; www.mvdvisual.com

In 1968 The Beatles opened their door to all manner of musicians, writers, artists, filmmakers, inventors, designers, freaks and even opportunist sharks. But little of substance was forthcoming. Strange Fruit is the story of a record label which produced some extraordinary records and was operated under the most extraordinary guidelines.

CLAPTON, ERIC: The 1960s Review

Starring: Eric Clapton; www.mvdvisual.com

While few would argue that Eric Clapton is one of the finest guitarists of all time, it is sometimes forgotten just how pivotal, influential and startling this man was during the 1960s. And while, throughout the 70s, 80s, 90s and 00s, Clapton remained a musician and songwriter of rare ability, it was during the decade in which he emerged that his skills were used most creatively as an early member of the Yardbirds, a crucial part of the Bluesbreakers, a founder member of Cream and the one who mattered most in the short lived Blind Faith, EC. In this documentary, his life and career throughout these ten years is put under the microscope with the help of archive interviews, contributions from friends, band mates and colleagues, rare and classic performance footage, seldom seen photographs, location and period archive plus a host of other features.
