DVDs I'D RENT

Alien 2 On Earth

Pitch: If you thought HR Giger's alien creations were terrifying just wait until you see these breathing rocks...

Why Rent? This unofficial Italian sequel (?) to Ridley Scott's Alien sees a space mission return to Earth with something else on board! I think. It's difficult to say as we see stock footage of a space capsule landing and then jump to some folks spelunking. There's also no alien per se as the creatures here are a mix of pet rocks and flying worms. The gore is fun, and any movie that shows a kid with her face ripped off is aces in my book, but there just isn't enough of the wet stuff to make this a keeper. If you're still not sold on a rental, maybe the original trailer will do the trick.
