

Although Christmas 2017 has passed, the following four titles from CBS DVD + Paramount are still to be noted as fun, family viewing, even now.

SABRINA THE TEENAGE WITCH – THE CHRISTMAS EPISODES (DVD)

Follow Sabrina Spellman (Melissa Joan Hart) as she learns to navigate the arcane arts. During the holidays, there's even more magic in the air in this spellbinding collection, which also includes the feature-length movie Sabrina Goes to Rome.

FRASIER – CHRISTMAS EPISODES (DVD)

Starting Kelsey Grammer in his fan-favorite role as Dr. Frasier Crane, unwrap a collection of more than two hours of unforgettable holiday episodes from the award-winning sitcom.

THE HONEYMOONERS – CHRISTMAS LAUGHTER (DVD)

The classic 1955 holiday episode follows Ralph Kramden (Jackie Gleason) after he discovers his wife has been gifted with the not so "one-of-a-kind" item he bought her for the holidays. To go on a hunt for a new present, Ralph must first sell his beloved bowling ball. This DVD also includes five hilarious bonus episodes!

A VERY BRADY CHRISTMAS (DVD)

Fans of the iconic television series can watch as the Brady family reunites for Christmas despite the personal challenges they each face. No matter how many years pass or how many miles separate them, the Bradys will always be connected by love, friendship, and the Christmas spirit.

BLOOD MONEY (Blu-ray) • Lionsgate Home Ent.

Three friends on a wilderness excursion stumble upon bags of money and suddenly must outrun a white-collar criminal (John Cusack), hell-bent on retrieving his fortune. Soon, greed and mistrust turn the friends against each other as they wage a desperate fight for survival in this modern retelling of the 1948 action film Treasure of the Sierra Madre.

TIME TO DIE (Blu-ray) • Film Movement

Fresh from serving eighteen years in jail for shooting a man in self-defense, Juan Sayago comes back to his hometown to start life anew and reunite with old flame, Mariana. But the two sons of the man he killed, consumed by an overwhelming thirst for revenge, have been anxiously awaiting his return. An original story by Gabriel Garcia Márquez, shot in stunning black and white.

THE MOUNTAIN BETWEEN US (Blu-ray) Twentieth Century Fox Home Ent.

Kate Winslet and Idris Elba star in this sweeping, suspenseful drama based on Charles Martin's novel. When a plane they've chartered to beat a storm crashes into a remote mountain area, two strangers must trust each other in order to survive the extreme elements. With little hope of rescue, they begin a perilous journey that will shape the course of their lives.

TERMINATOR 2: JUDGEMENT DAY (2-Blu-ray) Lionsgate Home Ent.

Terminator 2 starring Arnold Schwarzenegger, first hit the movie scene in 1991 with groundbreaking special effects. This version takes the seminal blockbuster into the 21st century for a new generation of fans. It has been ten years since the events of Terminator. Sarah Connor's ordeal is only just beginning as she struggles to protect her son, John – the future leader of the human resistance against the machines – from a new Terminator, sent back in time to eliminate him while he's still a child. Sarah and John don't have to face this terrifying threat alone, however. The human resistance has managed to send them an ally, a warrior from the future, ordered to protect John Connor at any cost. The battle for tomorrow has begun. Disc One has 4K Ultra HD, Disc Two is Blu-ray.

GO, JOHNNY, GO! (DVD) • MVDvisual

Rock & Roll changed 1950s America at 45 revolutions-per-minute, and the swinging-est of the rock'n'roll movies was the electrifying Go, Johnny, Go! Hung on the loose storyline of "King of Rock'n'roll" disc jockey great Alan Freed's search for the next big star are way-out performances by all-time greats: Alan Freed, Chuck Berry, Ritchie Valens, Jimmy Clanton, Jackie Wilson, Eddie Cochran, The Cadillacs, The Flamingos, and many more.

KILLING GUNTHER (Blu-ray) • Lionsgate Home Ent.

Killing Gunther is a comedy set in the world of contract killers. A group of young, raw, and undisciplined assassins hire a docu-crew at gunpoint to have undeniable proof that they're the ones who will kill the most infamous hit man of all-time, Gunther. But Gunther is on to them before they know it and makes their lives a living hell, turning the hunters into the prey in a kill-or-be-killed race against time.

FRANK ZAPPA – SUMMER '82: WHEN ZAPPA CAME TO SICILY (DVD) • MVDvisual

Filmmaker Salvo Cuccia tells the behind-the-scenes story of Frank Zappa's 1982 concert in Palermo, Sicily, and the wrap-up to a European tour that ended in a riot. Now, thirty years later, he re-creates the events through a combination of rare concert and backstage footage, photographs, anecdotes from the family, band members, and insights from Zappa biographer Massimo Bassoli. The film looks at the rise and heyday of Zappa's career as a talented musician, innovative composer, and libertarian provocateur and includes tales of the relationship of a busy father with his children. While in Sicily, Zappa visited Partinico, the birthplace of his father and grandfather.

LUCKY (DVD) • Magnolia Home Ent.

Having outlived and out smoked all of his contemporaries, the fiercely independent Lucky finds himself at the precipice of life, thrust into a journey of self-exploration leading towards that which is so often unattainable: enlightenment. Lucky is at once a love letter to the life and career of Harry Dean Stanton as well as a meditation on mortality, loneliness, spirituality, and human connection.

DEMOCRATS STILL STUCK IN THE PAST

I still think Hillary Clinton wants one more bite at the apple. Why else would she be doing a nationwide book tour? She came to Austin while I was there and packed them in to hear her speak and purchase her newest book. When I returned to Boston, there she was again doing the exact same things. Women were lining the streets singing her praises like something just short of the Second Coming.

Then, there's — OMG — Joe Biden. First, he's swearing in Mayor Walsh for a second term this past week in Boston and then swearing in all thirteen city councilors, too.

In a few weeks, he will be back in the area according to a billboard I saw along the Southeast Expressway in Dorchester announcing he will be attending some kind of function in Medford the beginning of February. Sounds like he still has Potomac Fever, too.

I hear Deval Patrick is staying active also. However, his brother-in-law is back in the news and that is never good news for poor Deval.

Time for Democrats to move on to the next generation or see more bad news at election time. Only bad news there, too. I see no winners in that crowd, either.

TONY COSTANZO: A SANTARPIO LEGEND

I missed Tony Costanzo's retirement down at Santarpio's Pizza. This famed waiter of thirty-three years and server of at least a million pizzas will be missed. I enjoyed bantering with him while dining in this establishment. For many, he was actually the face of the place. Good luck in retirement. They all miss you down at the place. The pizza won't taste the same anymore.

WMEX RADIO RETURNING TO AIR

A former Quincy-based radio station, WMEX, is returning to the air, hopefully soon. The new owner is Ed Perry and he hopes is 'to create a local voice once again for the communities south of Boston.' The format will be all local news and sports.

Perry already owns WATD 95.9 in Marshfield, an FM station around for forty years, and also a station in Brockton at 1460 AM.

BEST DINER IN TEXAS

Still dreaming about that great diner food I found at

They gave me a menu to take home so I wouldn't forget the place.

Jim's Restaurant while down in South Austin. The place was called Jim's Restaurant and was located in Oak Hill at the junction of 190 and 71. Every waitress sounded like Flo and the food was super great. Ate there a lot for both breakfast and dinner. I loved their liver and onions, southern style.

All the staff was great and here's a callout to Ashley and Desi, two super waitresses. Miss my oatmeal combo in the mornings, too.
