

THE GUARDIAN: THE COMPLETE SERIES (18-DVD)

CBS DVD + Paramount

One of television's greatest legal dramas, The Guardian, returns to DVD for all three of its heart-pounding seasons. Simon Baker stars as Nick Fallin, a handsome hotshot attorney busted on a drug charge and ordered to perform 1500 hours of community service. Just when Nick thought he had lost everything, he found a true calling to help the less fortunate. However, making a difference isn't always easy. Nick is caught between his father Burton, the founder of Pittsburgh's legendary law firm, Fallin & Associates, and Alvin Masterson who runs the firm where Nick follows his passion as a child advocate lawyer. To help him through, Nick leans on his girlfriend Lulu and his friend and colleague Jake. Enjoy all sixty-seven episodes from Seasons 1-3, together for the very first time.

TRUMP:

THE ART OF THE INSULT (DVD) Highway Ent. + MVDvisual

Thirty years after he authored The Art of the Deal, Donald Trump used The Art of the Insult to brand political opponents and bash the media all the way to the White House. While critics insisted "The Donald" was merely a chaotic side-show, Trump was dominating the 24-hour news cycle with a master plan of political incorruptness. Hurling insults like Low-Energy Jeb, Lyin' Ted, Crooked Hillary, Little Marco, Pocahontas, and Fake News, Trump emerged in 2016 as an unstoppable political phenomenon who transformed the Presidential race into the "great show on earth." Trump: The Art of the Insult tells the story of Donald Trump's improbable journey from Trump Tower to rallies across America to the debate stage, where he reveled in mocking and taunting rivals with targeted insults and nicknames. Not only did he push frontrunner Jeb Bush out of the Presidential race early on, Trump proved him wrong when Bush lectured during a debate "Donald, you can't insult your way to the Presidency." In Trump: The Art of the Insult, the President is often sophomoric and sometimes brutal, yet always entertaining. Love or hate Donald Trump, you'll find yourself laughing along with the leader of the free world, and marveling at Trump, a marketing genius and performance artist who, despite being a Manhattan billionaire, captured the hearts of middle America.

BOSOM BUDDIES: THE COMPLETE SERIES (6-DVD)

CBS DVD + Paramount

Tom Hanks stars in the hilarious sitcom that launched his Academy Award-winning career in Bosom Buddies: The Complete Series. After their old apartment building is condemned, best friends and struggling ad men Kip Wilson (Hanks) and Henry Desmond (Peter Scolari) must dress up as women to rent the only other place they can afford in New York City: the female-only Susan B. Anthony

Hotel. As Kip and Henry begin their secret lives as Buffy and Hildegard, they quickly learn that with a little moxie, and a lot of makeup, anything is possible! Bosom Buddies includes all thirty-seven episodes of the irreverent comedy on six discs.

THE DEUCE: THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON (Blu-ray)

HBO Home Ent.

Oscar nominees James Franco and Maggie Gyllenhaal star in a gritty new drama from David Simon and George Pelecanos that traces the evolution of the porn industry in New York City's Times Square in the early 1970s, as the business of pleasure begins its climb to become a billion-dollar industry. The Deuce features a vivid assortment of characters seizing the chance to cash in on the nascent porn business, including Vincent Martino (Franco), a bartender with vision and connections; Frankie Martino (also Franco), Vincent's identical twin, a dangerously freewheeling counterpart to his entrepreneurial brother; Candy (Maggie Gyllenhaal), a self-made, on-the-street sex worker eyeing a new career in porn filmmaking; pimps C.C. (Gary Carr) and Larry Brown (Gbenga Akinnagbe); young prostitutes Darlene (Dominique Fishback) and Lori (Emily Meade); and midtown cop Chris Alston (Lawrence Gilliard, Jr.).

BEN 10: VILLAIN TIME (4DVD)

Cartoon Network

Ben 10 follows the story of ten-year-old Ben Tennyson, who, on a seemingly endless summer vacation with his Grandpa Max and Cousin Gwen, discovers an alien watch, the Omnitrix. This amazing device gives Ben the ability to transform into any one of ten spectacular and powerful aliens. Throughout the series, Ben, Gwen and Max travel the country in their motor home, affectionately known as the Rust Bucket, seeing the sights, stumbling into adventures, and beating down would-be villains while generally having a blast. This fan-favorite contains twenty episodes.

PARADISE (DVD) Film Movement

Olga (Julia Vysotskaya) is a beautiful Russian countess and member of the French Resistance; Jules (Philippe Duquesne) is a French-Nazi collaborator who is assigned to investigate her case; and Helmut (Christian Clauss) is a handsome, high-ranking, yet naïve German SS officer. Helmut, who once fell madly in love with Olga, meets her again when she is shipped to a concentration camp. While they recount their stories, Paradise drifts between the bloody end of World War II and the gilded, Halcyon days when their destinies first crossed. Victim, bystander, or monster — director Andrei Konchalovsky collapses these identities, offering a new perspective on the Holocaust. Shot in stunning black and white, the film depicts the morally complex choices that one must make during the darkest of times in search of paradise — a look at the past and its lessons for the present.

FREEWAY NOW SLEEPING UP IN HEAVEN

Freeway with his boss Post-Gazette Publisher/Editor Pamela Donnaruma

Freeway was such a fixture at the Post-Gazette that if he wasn't there, he was missed. Of course, I always joked if you were such a prolific canine, writing newspaper columns year after year, you might be tired, too. I don't know how he found the time to write so much.

If Freeway was on his favorite chair, I hated to bother him but usually did anyway. He always got a couple of pats from me and everyone else in the office. All of us at the Post-Gazette miss him.

Sleep well, Freeway. You have finished the race and you're in heaven now.

WHAT IS WITH

GABRIEL GOMEZ?

I heard he's thinking of running as an Independent this coming fall for U.S. Senate against Elizabeth Warren. He will let the Republicans fight it out in their primary and wait till November. I hope he doesn't run, because if he does he will only guarantee Warren her reelection as he would split the anti-Warren vote.

Back in 2014, he ran a campaign as a Republican against U.S. Senator Edward Markey. DOT DAY CELEBRATIONS COMING UP

The Dorchester Day Parade will be coming up before you know it. You might think Sunday, June 3rd, is far off, but it will get here quicker than you think. It starts at 1:00 pm up near St. Gregory's, travels down Dorchester Ave., and ends at Blessed Mother Teresa Church (formally St. Margaret's). There are a host of events working up to parade day. One event I like attending is the Chili Cook-Off fundraiser held at Freeport Hall on Sunday, March 11th, starting at 4:00 pm.

ST. PATRICK'S LUNCHEON AT KENNEDY CENTER MARCH 14TH

Before Dot Day, don't forget the St. Patrick's Day Luncheon in Quincy for seniors at the Kennedy Center. If you love corned beef and cabbage, here's your chance to have a plate of it. For more information, contact the Quincy Center on Aging at 617-376-1506.

SOUTHE FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY

The St. Patrick's/Evacuation Day Parade will be held in Southie this year on Sunday, March 18th, starting at 1:00 pm down by Broadway Station. This area used to be called the Lower End, but now with all the gentrification, it now looks more like the Upper Side.

USS COLE IN SOUTHIE FOR PARADE

The USS Cole will be in town during South Boston's Parade weekend from Friday, March 16th, through Monday, March 19th, with public tours being planned.

Fundraising for the parade has already begun. For more information go to www.southbostonparade.org.

MacLEOD FROM WINTHROP HONORED

Winthrop resident Don MacLeod, former head coach of Northeastern University's women's hockey team, was recently honored with an award from the Women's Hockey Beanpot Tournament on the 40th Anniversary of the All-Women's Beanpot team. Don is also a regular down at Adrianna's pastry shop, where he and friends catch up on the news.

IS IT JUST ME OR ...

I live in the 7th congressional district, you know the one that's going to have a lively Democratic primary. The makeup of this district includes 50 percent of Cambridge, Somerville, Chelsea, Everett, and Milton plus 70 percent of Boston. The district is now 56 percent non-white.

It is not the same district to which U.S. Rep. Mike Capuano was first elected to way back when. At one time, the House district now occupied by U.S. Rep. Steve Lynch used to be the Boston seat, but his district was pushed further south. In the old days, Capuano's seat was occupied by Tip O'Neill, Jr., and was a Cambridge-Somerville-Watertown seat.

Capuano's district got reconfigured into becoming a majority-minority seat and, thus, his problem this year. He will have to work hard and then some.

HEY, IF YOU LIKE COUNTRY MUSIC ...

People ask me all the time, where can I hear good country music? I usually laugh and tell them Austin, TX, but you don't really have to go that far. You can try BREAK AWAY up on the North Shore in Danvers.

Country music night is every Sunday night at 6:00 pm with tunes by the Jimmy Allen Band. Check this out.

MEANWHILE,

GOING SOUTH AGAIN

If you like good soul music, get down to Cohasset this summer to the South Shore Music Circus off Route 3A. Tickets are on sale now. The Temptations and Four Tops together in one show on July 28th on the spinning bandstand where there are no bad seats. For more information, go to musiccircus.org.

STILL REMEMBERING

HENRY W. BOSWORTH, JR.

Over all the years I call Quincy home, I always read the Quincy Sun every Wednesday when it hit the newsstands. Henry was the founder, publisher, editor, etc., of this great paper that has been serving Quincy since 1968. The 9th anniversary of his passing happened February 7th. Great human being, great friend, great newspaper guy!

BREAKFAST WITH

"THE BEATLES" IS BACK

Like many baby-boomers out there, I was saddened when "Breakfast with the Beatles" went off WZLX-FM 100.7 last fall. But good news, long-time host Chachi Loprete and his Beatles show are back on the air every Sunday at 6:00 am on WUMB-FM 91.9, the UMass Boston radio station. Yeah, you have to get up early, but better than nothing at all, right?

MORE STUFF NEXT WEEK

This column can't just ramble on, so I'll stop here and we can pick it up again next week. FEEDBACK? sal.giaratani@gmail.com. See ya.
