MVD Entertainment

Street date 6/29/10

Documentary – 60 minutes

Description: This compelling documentary series unlocks the hidden secrets, psychological flaws and events that result in the tragic deaths of famed notorious and the iconic. Every episode maps out the final 24 hours of a different famous person's life. The series weaves the star's back-story with events from their last day, which lays bare the threads of fate that led inextricably from childhood to the moment of death. These are no ordinary biographies. They're psychological detective stories attempting to uncover the mystery of why the celebrity died. Final 24 investigates the root of Belushi's drug addiction and uncover the events that led to his final reckless act. Belushi has been battling his drug addiction for seven years. Throughout the night, he ingests the massive amount of drugs that finally get the better of him. In early March 1982, comic actor John Belushi is on a drug fueled binge in L.A. He's far from those that love him and protect him from his own excesses.

This was interesting and sad to watch. The same personality characteristics that made his comedy so entertaining also contributed to his personal downfall.

He was loved by those who knew him personally, but he and they paid the price for his addiction.

RIP John Belushi.

He was so funny. I remember him in Saturday Night Live. It's very sad that he died so young. I would like to learn more about the man behind the comedy.

I've always been fascinated by his troubled life. We knew Belushi as the "fat funny guy" so to speak. But underneath all that was a man with a lot of issues in his life. Would love to see this and learn more about his life. Thanks.
