of the movie focuses on the vampire and her quest for redneck domination, but the majority focuses on the decorator, a dwarf and a moron. I have to say I came close to turning this one off several times, because it was soooo bad. This was not one of the better B-flicks I have seen, by far. Some may enjoy this one, but my guess is, it won't be many.

Bottom Line: One of the worst movies I've seen in some time. It was painful to watch at times, and it is a miracle I made it through the whole thing. Some might get a kick out of it, but I'm sure the audience that this flick will attract will be fairly small.
