LIGHTS CAMERA DEAD (SRS CINEMA) AVAILABLE NOW

Horror/ comedy by Tim reaper, in which a director and writer go to bloody extremes to finish there zombie lick- (fango chopping list) I would say this is an average movie It starts off with these 2 guys who are trying to make a movie but because the filmmakers are such dicks to the crew they all bail the set, leaving The filmmakers without a crew to finish their movie. The filmmakers decide they are going to finish the film anyways and go on a killing spree, in which they shoot themselves killing the abandond crew. Not really a bad idea for a movie , it sorta reminded me of Return to horror high in a way if you like campy Horror/comedy you'll probably like this.

Not much in the way of nudity but plenty of gore, some may even find this film scary in parts.
