

flockedmedia

HOME EDITORIAL LOCAL MOVIE SHOWCASE MUSIC RETRO MOVIE SHOWCASE VIDEO & GAMES

TUESDAY OCTOBER 12TH 2010

Search ...

DVD Series Review: Lights Camera Dead

A horror movie about some people making a horror movie? So, I thought, why not give it a chance. MVD Entertainment Group (www.mvdb2b.com) always has a great selection of gory B-rated horror flicks that are sure to gross out anyone. Well, this one is gross, for sure... in many ways.

Filed like a bad porno flick, because on a low budget it was supposed to look real. Even one of the actors "trying" out for "The Music Box", which is the film inside the film, thinks he is trying out for a porno. Funny, not. This is the new thing you know, trying to make fiction look like reality. 'Cloverfield' did it, and so did 'Paranormal Activity'. Of course they all copied off of the 'Blair Witch Project.'

I don't really buy the acting in this movie, but then I think maybe that was the point too. If you can manage to get through the fake auditions at the beginning you just may make it into some good old blood and gore. So, the film makers lose their cast and crew, but the show must go on... oh, and there will be blood, for sure!

If you like bad horror flicks then 'Lights Camera Dead' is a film made just for you. If you don't mind losing a few brain cells then you may like this movie too. Me, I think I wish I could get my last couple hours back. An interesting, if not at all original, idea... but it falls flat, into a pool of blood and goo.

Rating: 0.0/5 (0 votes cast)

Subscribe to this author's posts feed via RSS

Related Tags: camera, dead, lights, mvd, yvonne glasgow

Previous Topic: 10.01.10

Next Topic: DVD Series Review: America's Music Legacy

Leave a Comment

You must be logged in to post a comment.

Added: October 1st, 2010
Author: yvonne
Category: Documentary, Horror, Movie Showcase

Pages

Flocked Info

Interesting Sites

Flocked Old Site

Insider

Register

Log in

Archives

Select Month

Digg

Facebook

Delicious

StumbleUpon

Twitter

LinkedIn

Technorati

reddit

Mixx

Newsvine

More...