

'Lights Camera Dead,' (MVDvisual, HH)

The plot of this July 27 DVD is fairly simple: it's a dark comedy that tells the tale of a diehard filmmaker Ryan Black and a pretentious screenwriter Stephen Dydimus who will stop at nothing to complete their self-proclaimed zombie masterpiece movie. However, the cast and crew get fed up halfway through filming and shut production down. Partial nudity and marijuana references keep me from recommending this one.

- Ricky Flake