

CLIFF RICHARD/Rare & Unseen (Wienerworld) I actually have a greatest hits CD from this guy as he had a few hits in the 70's and was more of a power pop type of guy. This has some really old footage on it and it is cool if your really into the man and his music. This was somewhat enjoyable to me as I am a bit familiar with him and this didn't bore me to tears like the above DVD. Good for what it is. Info:
