These two mini cassette tapes were sent anonymously to filmmaker Joel Gilbert in 2005. They contain the voice of someone who appears to be George Harrison confessing to the rumored cover-up of Paul McCartney's death in 1966. They're the basis of the new documentary, Paul Really Is Dead.

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (Wireless Flash - FlashNews) – Paul McCartney's 68th birthday is this Friday (Jun. 18) – or is it?

For decades, there's been an urban legend that Paul McCartney died in a car crash in 1966 and was replaced by a look-alike in an elaborate cover-up.

Now, film director Joel Gilbert is shedding new light on the conspiracy theory with a revealing documentary dubbed, Paul McCartney Really Is Dead: The Last Testament Of George Harrison.

Gilbert believes his film, on DVD this September, finally proves once and for all that McCartney really is dead – straight from the horse's mouth.

The whole documentary is based on two mysterious audio tapes that were sent to Gilbert's offices in 2005 labeled "The Last Testament Of George Harrison."

On them, Harrison's purported voice – which Gilbert had forensic experts verify – confesses the entire scheme in great detail, including every bizarre clue the Beatles ever left behind on album covers to signal fans of Paul's passing.

Supposedly, even the Fab Four's "mop-top" phase was a ploy to hide the new Paul's plastic surgery scars on his head.

I've seen the film and it's funny but gets a lot of basic Beatles history wrong.

This is absolutely NOT George Harrison's voice. Any Beatles fan will know this.

Yes I'm sure that the last thing on George's mind, as he was contemplating his own passing, was to confess what he knew about the Beatles Cover-up, lol. If he was ever going to do it, would it have been when they were doing/after the Get Back/Let it Be Sessions (when he was so annoyed at Paul's guitar directions), or maybe when all the court cases were going during after the Beatles breakup - think of the money the three surviving Beatles could have split between them, if they proved Paul was an imposter. This documentry just stinks of a money making machine, no wonder it's going DIRECT to DVD. No decent broadcaster wants to touch it. What RUBBISH !! I hope the Harrison family sues you for everthing you've got !!!!!

This is such rubbish it's unbelievable. There is so much evidence to show that the rumors are false that proves that this is someones idea to make money, pure and simple greed.

The voice was verified by so-called forensic experts...HAHAHA. Ok, who are these experts? Every self-respecting "Scouser" who I know that has heard this says the voice is a fake and the accent is "put-on" by someone who is NOT from Liverpool. This is all too hokey to be real. I suspect that if Gilbert wants to persist that it IS actually George Harrison, Olivia and Dhani will be all over this one and will OWN Joel Gilbert before it's over.
