

NorthJersey.com

JOHNNY WINTER: LIVE THROUGH THE '80s (2010, MVD, unrated, $20)

Winter's love of Chicago blues is in evidence as he slashes and burns his way through numbers like "Mojo Boogie," "Lights Out" and "Early in the Morning." The two-hour program is culled from a handful of '80s TV gigs and live appearances (including a show at the Capitol Theater in Passaic). Winter's "Live Through the '70s" was a blast, and this follow-up is a good, if not better, showcase for the guitarist's blues prowess. No wonder Muddy Waters liked him so much. Extras: none.

— Amy Longsdorf

(Her column runs Fridays in Bergen Record and the Herald News, Thursdays (in an abbreviated form) in Allentown Call, Fridays in Camden Courier Post and Sundays in Pottstown Mercury.)