GG Allin & The AIDS Brigade - Live In Boston 1989 (DVD, MVD Visual, Live concert footage)

Hmmm...this DVD features a strange phase in the unbridled career of the late GG Allin. The disc provides concert footage of Allin and his bandmates playing in drag in Boston in 1989. Included are rehearsals for the show...an extraordinarily long (and grueling) segment showing women putting make up on the guys...and then there's the concert itself. During this particular show there's very little to speak of...except for the fact that all of the guys in the band are wearing dresses, wigs, and make up. It's not one of GG's better shows to be sure...but it is an interesting phase he went through. But before you stop reading and dismiss this release...wait, wait, WAIT. There are two bonus concerts included from 1993 that feature the GG we all know and love. While the AIDS Brigade show isn't much to speak of, the bonus concerts feature everything we've come to expect. GG showing off his rectum to his fans...GG pissing on stage...GG fighting with audience members...GG bashing his head bloody with the microphone...GG running around nekkid playing with his worthless little penis. Yup, you may want to skip over the AIDS Brigade stuff...but the 1993 concerts (from Seattle and Portland) are more than worth the price of admission. Crazy stuff...and it makes us sad to think that intense wild folks like GG no longer exist. He is sadly missed.
