Scream Dream (1989) Movie Review

Scream Dream
1989
 directed by: Donald Farmer
 69 mins
 SRS Cinema
 reviewer: James DePaolo

Plot-
 One of the girls in a rock band is fired from the band. She is, in reality, a witch, and possesses the body of the girl who replaces her in order to take revenge on the rest of the band.

Review-
 This is the early work of the director who would give us such treasures as Chainsaw Cheerleaders and Dorm of the Dead among others. The transfer looked like SRS used the beta copy of this movie. Its horrible, so grainy, and even with surround sound the volume had to go up to 60 just to hear them clear. The movie is awful. Its just a long 69 minute music video slash horror thrown in between. How anyone ever green lit this movie 21 years ago escapes me. Not one of the stars ever became anything after this movie, and if you watch this movie, you may realize why. This was done, after movies like Trick or Treat and Black Roses made money.. They were making anything that
