I dont usually review DVDS but i am certainly open to it, so when i got an email from JACOB MORRISON- WOOD (WIENERWORLD) about this DVD Naturally i was interested. Whilst not feeling too well I decided to sit and watch the SOULIVE (BOWLIVE) LIVE at the BROOKLYN BOWL that I had just received. Right from the word go I began to wag my right leg as I enjoyed the music playing these guys really can jam in the highest quality ever that I have seen to date. ERIC KRASON, ALAN EVANS and brother NEAL EVANS throw down in way that left me envious of the crowd there, as I kept thinking I wished I was there this is so good. When you first watch the DVD you are given the choice to watch with interviews or without I chose without first ,then rewatched it with the interviews of this two week soul music festival .If you had to say in one word what this is then word I would choose is spontaneous because it all happens that way .I had never thought of mixing the two music and bowling and these people have . One of my favourite parts of this is when NIGEL HALL came on to jam with set and he and ERIC KRASON get it together on the keyboards at that point I am sitting up in my bed ,head bobbing and hands clapping. If you love all things live and know these dudes you have to have this in your collection, another highlight is when IVAN NEVILLE joins the set to really get into it . Another act that I liked that grabbed my interest was QUESTLOVE at this point I'm like gone .JAMES BROWN was alive and SOUL POWER was back!! .Most definitely I enjoyed this set .IF you know any one that loves real soul music this is a treat even for those who aren't quite sure as a found my son later watching this ,his words were COOL!!!.and that's all I needed to hear .A BIG THANK YOU TO JACOB MORRISON- WOOD( WIENERWORLD) for making a sick man feel real good ,I LOOK FORWARD TO ANYTHING ELSE HAVE MY FRIEND.

below is the press release for this.

Any fan of soul, funk, and jazz should not hesitate to check out the music of Soulive as well as this excellent new concert DVD." -- Paul Roy, Seattle PI

In March of 2010, the members of Soulive hauled their instruments through the doors of a newly-opened warehouse-turned-music venue in Brooklyn that they would call home for the next two weeks. Eric Krasno, Alan Evans and Neal Evans called on a multitude of their closest friends and musical conspirators to join them over the next fortnight - creating an incredibly broad guest lineup that included some of the pre-eminent guitar virtuosos of our generation (Derek Trucks, Warren Haynes), some of the biggest names in hip-hop (Questlove, Rahzel), and some of the most inventive improvisational players in modern rock n' roll (Robert Randolph, Marco Benevento, Oteil & Kofi Burbridge).

The Brooklyn Bowl quickly became the mecca for these very distinct yet like-minded musicians, where they returned night after night, donning the dress code for good times (bowling shoes) and sharing famous Blue Ribbon fried chicken. The common thread that tied together all these disparate ingredients quickly became palpable -- from the transcendental heartfelt improvisations onstage to the homey & playful atmosphere provided by the bowling alley, the Soulive residency was like nothing that had come before it because all of those diverse elements fused to ultimately bring the Soul to Brooklyn Bowl.
