The original 1973 album.

Some of my biggest hometown heroes, Detroit's own Iggy Pop and The Stooges are hitting the road later this year to promote a live concert recording of their 1973 classic, Raw Power.

Paste reports that Raw Power Live: In The Hands of the Fans—documenting the band's powerhouse performance at last year's All Tomorrow's Parties Festival—will hit record stores on April 5. Says Iggy Pop: "Getting this top-notch performance of the entire Raw Power album by The Stooges realized a life long dream... This sh*t really sizzles and we are so obviously a crack band in a class of our own."

MY.O

Well said. If you're somehow unaware of Iggy Pop, The Stooges, or Raw Power, then stop reading this and go steal yourself a copy and blast it out of every speakers you've got, because your life is about to change.

The Dates:

4/19 – Ann Arbor, MI (Michigan Theater)

5/28 – Evolution Festival @ Newcastle Gateshead Quayside, England

6/11 – Isle of Wight Festival @ Newport, England (Seaclose Park)

6/15 – Milan, Italy (Rock in IdRho Festival)

6/17 – Clisson, France (Hellfest)
