

POST-GAZETTE, AUGUST 5, 2011

JOHNNY WINTER - LIVE
AT ROCKPALAST (DVD)
*MVDvisual

Johnny Winter and his three-piece band performed live on Germany's famous Rockpalast television show in 1979. At 35 years old he was already an established international star at the time, making his mark with his seminal 1969 debut — a groundbreaking record following an unforgettable appearance at Woodstock. There was this, along with scores of sold-out arenas, a well-documented stint in rehabilitation and a steady stream of celebrated albums. Winter opens with "Hide-away," Junior Wells' "Messin' With the Kid," the bluesy "Walking By Myself," the lengthy "Mississippi Blues" and a super cover of The Stones' "Jumpin' Jack Flash" and more." Excellent DVD. (1 hr. 30 mins.)