Johnny Winter – Live at Rockpalast (MVD Visual)

Winter's 1979 performance on German television's "Rockpalast" ("Rock Palace") is a fiery affair. A flaming, blazing burn of a performance, real blues sizzling out of Winter's fingers through his Gibson Firebird ... man, it's a thing to see. Blues is a power-summoning form of music in the right hands, and I don't think anybody can doubt it's in the right hands with Johnny Winter. It is suggested, however, that there was a personal agenda behind this concert, that it was a return to roots for Johnny – and for his audience. At any rate, what matters is the quality of the music and the quality is here, no doubt. Winter jams through a strong set list that includes "Jumpin' Jack Flash", "Suzie Q", "Hideaway", a 17-minute "Mississippi Blues", "Rockabilly Boogie" and more. Aficionados of blues and blues rock may well find this worth a visit.
