And what a striking band The Jesus Lizard is. Even if you weren't familiar with them before (I really had only heard the name) this is still a slamblast way to get acquainted. Take it from my personal experience. Deliberately, furiously raw and with absolutely no fucking apologies about it, The Jesus Lizard slams out a high-energy raucous performance, a bacchanalia of alt-punk orgying!!! Wow, what an aggro, in your face experience. Rather than intimidating, it draws you in to unison with the band. Share in the rage, or fear. Your choice. I know what mine is. I'm right up there on stage with these bad mothers. And this is a muy significant performance too – the first show of the reunion tour. This also represents the band's first appearance on American stages in more than a decade. So eat it up, chew it like glass, and love every chunky, bleeding moment of it in the mouth of your ears. TONGUE!!!!!!!
