Jesus Lizard, The – Club

Jesus Lizard, The – Club DVD (director: Matthew Robison; MVD Visual)

Yes! That's what I said when I heard this was coming out. That's what I said when I got this in the mail. That's what I said when I put the DVD in the player. That's what I said when the show started. And that's what I said when every single song featured started up. Amazing, all the way through. My personal favorite parts were when frontman David Yow berated the crowd for being a bunch of hillbillies (the show was filmed at Nashville's legendary Exit/In club on 14 July 2009) and later when he started giving praise to the 'Live Music Capital Of The World', Austin, Texas, for no apparent reason. Fantastic. The band sounds amazing – tight, in control, each player on top of his respective game. The audio and the visuals are stellar, fully pro-shot and recorded. The songs that needed to be on here are here: from 'Puss' to 'Wheelchair

Epidemic', 22 in all. The bonus features include the entire concert presented as audio files, too, which is bad-ass. It's hard to justify making this kind of claim about a live DVD from any band, but I'd be remiss to do otherwise here: buy or die. The Impaler
