It's a charming, rapturous yet serene performance here. The emotions run deep. It's a soulful experience. Shot just shy of Zoot Sims death, this 1984 concert captures the Zoot Sims Trio in top notch form. The instruments all weave and coalesce in a metaphysical vision of aural ecstasy. This is just pure-dee great jazz music. It doesn't matter if you're into smooth jazz or this jazz or that jazz – this is simply awesome jazz. The music flows through the listener, at the same time filling him up and spilling out through the top chakra of the brain. Yep, this is jazz from the heart. The instruments are mere communication device. Very worth a look-see for jazzheads everywhere!
