Nazi Hunters proves that reality is sometimes better and, some events are so beyond belief, they seem like

I'm a complete nut for documentaries, but only when it's about unique subjects. Offer up a documentary on the Holocaust during World War II, and I'll pass. Show me one documenting the war from the eyes of the British, and I'm all in. Nazi Hunters obviously falls into the latter category and snagged my attention from

The general premise for the entire eight-part series is laid out in the first episode. In the 1960s, the world decided that the time for prosecution of Nazi war cr
