Director of the zombie movie Bong of the Dead, Thomas Newman, can be heard on a Red FM interview with Gurpreet Grewal.

The director, writer, and producer of the $5000 epic zombie movie Bong of the Dead, Thomas Newman, recently appeared on the Punjabi Takeover show on Red FM. Fans can hear Newman interviewed about his cult hit by the lovely and talented host Gurpreet Grewal.

Bong of the Dead recently had it's Canadian movie premiere which was held May 15 at the Rio Theatre in Vancouver. The movie was a sellout and fans were treated to prizes, giveaways and a question and answer period with the film's creator. That same weekend, Bong of the Dead also played at the prestigious Cannes Independent Film Festival.

There was such great feedback to the sold out show that a second date has been added at the Rio Theatre on August 28th. Tickets can be purchased online via the official website. Further showings across North America in film festivals are to be announced soon.

About Bong of the Dead

Bong of the Dead was the creation of writer, producer and director Thomas Newman. Filmed on a budget of only $5000 this film is now garnering international attention. Industry heavyweights like FX guru Mike Fields lent their expertise and the film plays like a multi-million dollar Hollywood production.
