KCRW BROADCAST #139 for Saturday, November 5, 2011

Fanatics! The stars at night are big and bright, deep in the heart of Texas. At least that's what I've heard. For the first hour of our show, we will focus on music from the great state.

I am in Austin, TX this weekend. I will be at the Fun Fun Fun Festival on Sunday, so Engineer X and I put this together a few days ago.

I am sure I saw a few of you at last week's KCRW party at the Park Plaza downtown. I wish we could do that more often. I don't want to wait another year to do that again.

One thing in our second hour you might find of interest. I have a copy of the new Fall album, Ersatz GB. I asked the record company if I could play tracks from it and they said yes. The album comes out next month, so we got a bit of a jump on things but that's how we do it. So far, the track we are playing tonight is my favorite one. Mark E Smith's wife, also the band's keyboard player is the vocalist on this track. I hope you dig it.

I am glad you all weathered the Damned storm of last month. You all have a lot of patience and perseverance! I think it was a good idea and I am glad you all dug it. I am sorry I got a Damned factoid wrong and got a few letters about it. I said that "Drinkin' About My Baby" was an Eddie and the Hotrods song that Paul Gray brought with him. I couldn't remember where I read that. The main reason I couldn't remember is that I never read it. It's the song "Hit Or Miss" that Gray brought to the band and apparently, it never got past the demo stage with the Hotrods. Perhaps I read that in the liner notes for the anniversary re-issue? I will check when I get a chance.

I think we have a solid show tonight. I have been playing it through and probably will one more time before it airs on Saturday. Next week, we are live and it's going to be a great one. I have just started putting it together and so far, it's quite rockin'.

I think I will have some good stories to tell you next week. The next few days should be quite eventful.

Dig this show and STAY FANATIC!!! --Henry
