John Waters seems the perfect host for a documentary dubbed OF DOLLS & MURDER, especially when it's about retro crime scene reconstruction. The retro thing is so John Waters. So is the murder bit. Now we have all the super duper CSI hi-tech crime scene lab analysis blah der fuckety doo. Do you know how they used to do it? WITH MINIATURE SETS. That's right. Mini crime scenes. Dead dolls! Holy shit, Batman. This certainly would suggest that OF DOLLS & MURDER is probably a viable candidate for most original documentary of the year. There's a pretty big creep factor to the idea of little doll houses of death. SHUDDER Tell me John Waters wasn't the perfect person to lead us through an exploration of how crimes were worked out by investigators before David Caruso cocked his head and said, "Murder!"
