

DVD:*GG Allin & The Murder Junkies – *Blood, Shit, and Fears

GG Allin is considered by many as the greatest degenerate in rock history, since its sole purpose was to provoke and disgust. On this DVD, you can see him at work in three short shows where mutilation, defecation and confrontation with the public are dominating. These performances of late 1991 show him at the peak of his provocation. You should avoid watching it when having your meal for a cause of guaranteed nausea. The main benefit of watching this performance on DVD is to be safe in the comfort of your home. You will find in bonus two performances from May 1993, captured just a month before his death from an overdose at the age of 36. We see him decreased physically and greatly affected by drugs and alcohol. Rather uninteresting musically, his hardcore punk "work" is based primarily on provocation and anti-conformism. So even if the sound is totally bad on the DVD, nobody will really bother. Rather, it is the rest that may be offending. Sensitive persons should avoid this and please, do not leave the DVD too close to your children...
