GG ALLIN & THE MURDER JUNKIES

Blood, Shit & Fears - DVD

Track Listing:

GG Allin's legacy is one that's full o' sick crap and I mean that literally because on this latest GG dvd to hit stores you get to see GG naked, assaulting fans and most of the shows on this set feature GG taking a dump onstage and then eating his own feces and then hurling the remainder at the crowd!

Sadly I am not joking either....that's part of the GG stage show....I left out how he'd shove the mic IN his buttocks fyi. In one scene he grabs a female photographer by the hair & tries to force her onstage to do who knows what with her and all the while the backing band, The Murder Junkies, continue to play while GG does his verbal & physical assault on the crowd at hand!

I still have no clue how GG ever got away with the stage show he did & I've always wondered if he was really that angry onstage or if it was a mix of the drugs & sexual frustration because GG seemed to get off when he performed onstage and the thing about a GG Allin performance is you can't un-see a GG Allin performance once you've seen it!

The image of GG crapping onstage and then eating it is something you won't forget!

Just a warning, this dvd is NOT for kids, it's meant for sick minded adults ONLY so be warned, the stuff you will see on this dvd makes the Jackass show on MTV seem tame!
