Keith Jarrett – Sleeper (2 CD)

For 45 years, jazz pianist Keith Jarrett impresses and he is still considered as one of the most important jazz musicians of his generation. He offers us a new double album of 107 minutes recorded live in Tokyo on April 16, 1979. He was accompanied by three very talented musicians: Jan Garbarek (saxophone), Jon Christensen (drums) and Palle Danielsson (bass). Jarrett presents only seven long pieces on this double album, songs that stretch up to 28 minutes leaving room for improvisation on different occasions. If you like jazz somewhat free, Keith Jarrett will please you with Sleeper which is showing a musician at the top of his game.

Divinyls – Live: Jailhouse Rock

The Divinyls are an Australian new wave rock band that recorded five albums between 1983 and 1996. Led by charismatic female singer Chrissie Amphlett, the group presents a concert recorded in 1993 at the Boggo Road Prison in Queensland (with Rose Tattoo and Billy Thorpe). There are obviously all their greatest hits, including the inevitable "I Touch Myself". Unfortunately, the performance was not exceptional and it does not in any way enhance the compositions of the band, which in addition are not all really good. The concert of nearly one hour and a half leaves us more or less on our appetite. There are only the greatest Divinyls fans who may be satisfied.
