REVEREND JEN

If Gidget were to birth a child by Charles Bukowski, she'd have Reverend Jen. Peppy yet emo, this elf-eared anomaly curates a world-famous Troll Museum; has, for the past sixteen years, hosted a monthly open mic (now held at the Bowery Poetry Club), and just completed a laugh-out-loud memoir of bohemian extremism, Elf Girl (Gallery Books, 2011). Now, with filmmaker Courtney Fathom Sell, Jen has created the world's most underfunded motion-picture studio: ASS, aka Art Star Scene, Studios, aka the DreamWorks of the Lower East Side. Their new DVD features the bloody action movie Killer Unicorn and the easy-to-follow Elf Workout—sure to get viewers rock hard in no time.
