Redemption comes at a price!

This DVD, A Day of Violence, is one that a true Horror Flick fan would love. It is filled with violence, and lots of action. It has some gruesome scenes that I have to admit, I couldn't watch without holding my stomach and some of the scenes made me have to turn my head because they were too much for me to watch and I love horror films.

It features actors Nick Rendell and the famous Italian Horror legend Giovanni Lombardi Radice who is known for his roles in movies such as Gates of Hell Cannibal Apocalypse and House of Flesh Mannequins.

A Day of Violence finds Mitchell Parker lying dead on a slab at the morgue. In Mitchell's life he had served the low ranks of Debt Collectors and was surrounded by all the filth and scum that the world had to offer.

One day while on a routine collection, Mitchell thought he had finally run into some good luck. He found $100,000 in cash hidden in the client's sofa. He takes the money not knowing that when he did the people he stole the money from would hunt him down and make him pay dearly for taking it.

A dark and haunting past hangs over Mitchell's head, which ends up leading him on a journey of redemption and ultimately sacrifice. He finds himself evading being captured and he uses the money to rid himself of his demons once and for all. We then become witnesses to the last days of Mitchell Parker's life.

I have to warn you that the film does contain nudity, strong language and most certainly it has a LOT of gruesome scenes, but it has won numerous awards including Best Feature Film and Best Special Effects.
