In 2012, conspiracy theorist and filmmaker Joel Gilbert (<http://www.examiner.com/topic/joel-gilbert>) tried to win the election for Mitt Romney by mailing to tens of thousands of swing state voters a copy of a documentary called "Dreams From My Real Father", in which he alleges that President Obama is hiding secret communist ancestry.

The plan didn't work, of course, and in an interview (<http://www.wnd.com/2013/07/boyles-returns-to-air-with-focus-on-obamas-real-father/>) with Denver radio host Peter Boyles this week, Gilbert explained why.

"Obama could have used the NSA," said Gilbert. "Don't forget, there was that incredible database that the Obama campaign used that had all these details on everybody, and they were able to have this amazing, I don't think they Googled everybody in the country to create a database. I have to assume that the Obama campaign used the NSA data to categorize and reach out to a large group of potential voters."

Yup. It's the voter fraud (<http://www.examiner.com/topic/voter-fraud>) conspiracy again.

"A lot of it has to do with voter fraud, it has to do with manipulating the system," said Gilbert. "They were very confident that they would win this last election."

Gilbert's theory is that Barack and Michelle both cast early votes as a "signal to their followers" to commit voter fraud.

"I think a large percentage of those on absentee voted again on Election Day," said Gilbert.

By his estimate, these double-voting Obama supporters made up as much as 25 percent of the electorate.

"Romney actually won the election on Election Day," he added. "But because they had stacked the vote through absentee ballots, through dead people, homeless, disabled people, people voting two, three times, I believe that's how they knew they would win the election."

Nobody at the station bothered to inform Gilbert that, while the dead can't vote, the homeless and the disabled can.
