Is Joel Gilbert's film "Dreams from My Real Father" child pornography?

by Dr. Conspiracy on OCTOBER 2, 2012 in BIRTHEPORN, FEATURED ARTICLES

It what might be the best piece of investigative reporting encountered in my entire career as Dr. Conspiracy, Loren Collins at the Barackryphal blog has proven beyond question that the so-called nude photos of Obama's mother where not photos of Ann Dunham taken by Frank Marshall Davis in 1960 as claimed by Joel Gilbert in his film Dreams from My Real Father, but date back to 1958 when they appeared in a porno-fetish magazine. In 1958, Obama's mother was only 15 and hadn't yet moved to Hawaii.

If Gilbert is right that these photos are of Ann Dunham, then he is guilty of the sexual exploitation of minors in his film, and so is anyone who has a copy of his film in their possession!

So, anyone who claims that this is Ann Dunham is now on notice that their claims go hand in hand with being in possession of/publishing/disseminating child p*rn*graphy.

Unless it isn't Ann Dunham. In which case, they're "just" smearing a dead woman who can't defend herself.

This would be funny if there were anything humorous about either subject.

How very low the birthers stoop.

Super job. I know Peter Boyles. Anything for ratings. Peter had Gilbert on just the other day, praising his work and ridiculing callers who didn't believe the woman was Stanley Ann Dunham. He will never admit he is wrong. He'd lose listeners for his carpet cleaning ads.

Sometimes people leave comments designed to offend or outrage the reader, and invoke a firestorm of protest in response. These are the Internet trolls. Replying to them is feeding them and they will come back for more. Refusing to play their game encourages them to go away.

Yeah, I've been following this series since I saw it linked on your page. It's a really brilliant deflation of the film.

Mitt and the dog on the roof. Mike Huckabee caught a stray dog, hung it, slit its throat and stoned it to death.

Google "mormon child abuse." Now pictures that are used to smear a dead woman, and the President's family. I would like to point out those pictures have appeared in the Mandarin Chinese World Journal. My wife hit the roof. <http://www.worldjournal.com/>

It seems Republicans have a real problem with ethics, animal abuse and child abuse, which doesn't surprise me. Take Gingrich and Bob Livingston, for example. Remember, Livingston resigned after an affair with an underage female page, while preaching family values.

I'll repeat for emphasis: I was sitting in an Arlington, VA hotel lobby, and had a terrible asthma episode. A man walked up to me and said "Asthma?" I nodded "yes." "Are you a Christian?" I nodded "no." He said, "That's why you have asthma. If you were a Christian, Jesus would take your asthma away."

They're all a bunch of dolls.

Great job by Loren.

I haven't read his paper yet, but when I do I'll be looking for an answer to just one question.

How the heck did he find the original publication with the photos? Maintains a big collection, does he? 😊

OK, I've read his paper(s). They are superb. And he locates the original publication because Gilbert points him in the right direction (even though he tries to hide it).

Slam dunk.

Dunham. He will never admit he is wrong. He'd lose listeners for his carpet cleaning ads.

Everyone in the media has a boss.

Everyone in the media has sponsors.

I wonder if his boss or sponsors know that he's either promoting a big huge liar who is using pornography to make his case (best case), or someone who is distributing photos of a sexually exploited child?

Either way, ugly ugly stuff.

I used to be a volunteer that rated web sites for age-appropriate content, ratings that were used by parental control software. We had super strict rules (in line with the US Code) for dealing with child pornography. I never did encounter any actual child pornography, but was assigned one page where the models were made up to look young, and I deleted my cache and forwarded the URL to law enforcement.

The point is that a young model can be made to appear older and vice versa. Certainly those photos that Loren excerpted look like an adult woman, but I wouldn't stake my life on her not being 15. It's certainly not worth the risk of going to jail for 5-15 and being labeled a sex criminal for life.

If I had a copy of Gilbert's film (which I don't) I would destroy it, or put it in a sealed envelope and hand it over to the FBI.

I had considered spending a little time trying to debunk the Gilbert photos myself, only with a different approach. There are certain facial characteristics that can be used to discriminate between people, such as the ratio of the distance between the eyes to the distance between something else.

I was getting ready to do some research then Loren mercifully made it unnecessary.

Dr. Conspiracy: There are certain facial characteristics that can be used to discriminate between people, such as the ratio of the distance between the eyes to the distance between something else.

There is actually a Freeper who did this (Shocking, I know, but there are some Freepers who refuse to stoop so low as to agree with Gilbert). He lined up the alleged Ann photos with known photos of her, and showed that the chin and other facial features simply did not line up, proving that they are not the same person. naturally, other inmates over there screamed at him for doing so.
