Obama's Islamic Ring: There Is No God Except Allah

The Shahada

The Shahada is the Muslim profession of faith and the first of the 'Five Pillars' of Islam. The word Shahada in Arabic means 'testimony.' The Shahada is the Muslim creed, and declaration of belief in the oneness of God and acceptance of Muhammad as God's Prophet:

*There is no god but God, Muhammad is the messenger of God
La Ilaha Illallah, Muhammad Rasul Allah*

Muslims recite the Shahada when they wake up in the morning, and before they go to sleep at night. It is repeated five times every day in the call to prayer in every mosque. A single honest recitation of the Shahadah in Arabic is all that is required for a person to convert to Islam.

Arabic Script and Art

Arabic script is a form of art. It is featured prominently on paintings, ornaments, coins, jewelry, and walls of buildings throughout the Muslim world. Throughout history, Muslim artisans produced handcrafted items considered the most elegant in the world that included Koranic messages.
