Michelle Obama is an 'Anti-American Extremist,' Says Popular Birther Filmmaker

Submitted by Miranda Blue on Fri, 09/28/2012 - 1:36pm

We ordinarily wouldn't really pay attention to Joel Gilbert, a Bob Dylan enthusiast (http://talkingpointsmemo.com/archives/2012/09/dylanology\_the\_birther\_conspiracy.php) who also dabbles in anti-Obama conspiracy theories, most recently making a film (<http://www.obamasrealfather.com/>) that alleges that the president's real father is labor activist and communist party organizer Frank Marshall Davis.

But when Bill Armistead, the chairman of the Alabama Republican Party, started promoting Gilbert's movie (<http://www.rightwingwatch.org/content/alabama-gop-chairman-promotes-fringe-birther-movie-calls-it-factual-and-frightening>), "Dreams from My Real Father," and when news surfaced that Gilbert was sending thousands of copies of his movie gratis to households in swing states and that conservative groups were holding showings (<http://www.thedailybeast.com/articles/2012/09/28/with-dreams-from-my-real-father-have-obama-haters-hit-rock-bottom.html>), we thought we should start keeping track of him.

Gilbert has a spiel that he repeats pretty much word for word on media appearances, but once in a while he comes up with something new (for instance when he said that the Aurora movie theater shooting could very well have been an Obama administration inside job (<http://www.rightwingwatch.org/content/joel-gilbert-speculates-obama-may-have-been-behind-aurora-shooting>)).

In an interview with Iowa radio host Steve Deace (<http://stevedeace.com/headline/deace-show-podcast-09-27-12/>) yesterday, Gilbert asserted that the president is "comfortable around anti-American extremists" – including Michelle Obama. He also elaborated on his theory that Obama is "attempting to turn the entire United States into this one-party system by doubling the food stamp rolls, putting everybody on government healthcare, making illegals legal."

Obama is comfortable around anti-American extremists, people that are anti-American – Bill Ayers, Michelle Obama, dare I say. These are the people that he feels comfortable with and they're comfortable with him. Obama's policies mirror this classic Marxist indoctrination that he received and reinforced his entire life by joining the Midwest Academy, his relationship with Bill Ayers and his family for 25, 30 years, as well as Bernadine Dorn, and this entire rat's nest of Marxist ideologues that came out of Chicago and transformed their, took their little one-party ideology from Chicago and are attempting to turn the entire United States into this one-party system by doubling the food stamp rolls, putting everybody on government healthcare, making illegals legal. Their intent, it's all about keeping power and creating a one-party state that they can never have to give up power.
