Film: President's father not Barack Obama

"Who's your real Daddy?" is a question that remarkably continues to dog Barack Obama, even as he proceeds into his fourth year as president.

With the release this July of Joel Gilbert's full-length documentary, "Dreams from My Real Father: A Story of Reds and Deception," the mystery deepens regarding who Obama really is.

"The film provides the first cohesive understanding of Obama's deep-rooted life journey in socialism, from his childhood to his presidency," Gilbert told WND.

Gilbert rejects the official story that the Kenyan-born Barack Obama was the president's father.

Instead, he argues, Frank Marshall Davis, the radical poet and journalist who was a card-carrying member of the Communist Party USA, was the real, biological and ideological father of Barack Obama.

"I decided to investigate Frank Marshall Davis. His close physical resemblance to Obama was shocking, while Obama little resembled the Kenyan Obama," Gilbert said. "How could this be?"

It will be interesting, how many theaters will show the film. When "Atlas Shrugged" came out, it was vilified by the left and and shunned by most of the big name movie house chains. I'm sure the WH operatives will do all they can to limit the movie-going public from viewing it.

interesting info. I look forward to seeing the film. One thing is for sure, the truth is scary to the president because he has gone to great lengths to hide his past.

I feel if you have nothing bad in your history, then why would you pay to have your past hidden?
