With the release this July of Joel Gilbert's full-length documentary, "Dreams from My Real Father: A Story of Reds and Deception," the mystery deepens regarding who Obama really is. "The film provides the first cohesive understanding of Obama's deep-rooted life journey in socialism, from his childhood to his presidency," Gilbert told WND. Gilbert rejects the official story that the Kenyan-born Barack Obama was the president's father. Instead, he argues, Frank Marshall Davis, the radical poet and journalist who was a card-carrying member of the Communist Party USA, was the real, biological and ideological father of Barack Obama. "I decided to investigate Frank Marshall Davis. His close physical resemblance to Obama was shocking, while Obama little resembled the Kenyan Obama," Gilbert said. "How could this be?" Gilbert launched into what became two years of research during which he conducted interviews and discovered rare film footage and photos. The trailer for "Dreams from My Real Father": Continue reading here . . . there may be some stuff you haven't seen before . . .
