It seems no matter how many votes Romney gets ; Obama and his cadre of crooks will beat the amount by thousands. There are enough dead people in any one state to turn any election. That's why Obama does not want voter I.D. Without them he knows he can't win and will break any law to succeed.

Face it folks. America , as we know it , is finished except by a miracle from GOD.
We have no idea how evil this guy is

Even in mid-east Countries voters hold up an ink stained finger to show that they have voted.....This keeps them from trying to re-vote as their stained fingers gives testimony that they have already voted.....Imagine what Obama and his Goonies would say if that were a requirement in this country as well.....Oh.....The Horror of it all!

I wish it could be made that way here. Maybe it may come to pass sooner than we think. Hopefully before the next election.
