

Buckman Coe – Crow's Nest

Buckman Coe is a songwriter and multi-instrumentalist from Vancouver who previously issued two albums in 2010 and 2012. He now releases an EP produced in a limited edition with a total of 5 tracks and 25 minutes. He plays a soul and reggae sound with a good dose of hippie attitude, gospel and folk. Melodies stay mainly pop and come with a beautiful voice full of feeling. So this is a beautiful CD that will make us eager for more.

Dan Desnoyers - Winter Session 2013

It's now time for a new compilation by the famous house DJ from Quebec. The least one can say is that it starts with power with Pitbull's "Don't Stop the Party". Subsequently, the most famous moments include Bingo Players' "Get Up (Rattle)", Calvin Harris' "Sweet Nothing", Cash Cash's "Michael Jackson (The Beat Goes On)" and especially Ke$ha's "Die Young". The second half presents tracks a little less famous, but equally interesting to maintain the party at its climax. This is the case with, among others, Joachim Garraud's "Maximus (Jump)" and We Are Presidents' "Hello World". Also note "Phat Ass Drop" by DJs From Mars which is used as training for how to become a good producer of the perfect club song. Then, as usual, D-Noy gives us a personal composition, "It Goes On", featuring Jodee and P.-A. Here is another album up to the reputation of Desnoyers. Video: Megamix
