“Tight”

Life on the Road with the World’s First All-Girl Adult Film Star Band

Amos Lassen

“Tight” is the name of an all girl band whose members came together in Las Vegas where each girl hopes to move from having been a porn star into becoming a rock star. The film is a “mockumentary” about the girls as they try to put their pasts behind them. Because the girls had been porn stars, it is hard to take their music careers seriously even though they are very talented musicians. They go out on the road to promote their music and to find acceptance.

The girls are Monica Mayhem, Tuesday Cross, Alicia Andrews and Layla Labelle and they have decided to take a temporary hiatus from the porn industry and to try to make it in the world of music. Their manager is a former Charlie Sheen goddess, Bree Olson. Bree tells us that the girls are fine musicians but no one wants to give them a chance because of their porn backgrounds. (Take a look at the gay porn business and see where people like Dylan Vox and others have tried to make the transition from porn to acting in movies).

The band actually won Howard Stern's "XXX Factor" talent competition and now Monica Mayhem has left the ^{TOP 1} band and is replaced by new lead singer, Kelly Jean and they have released a new single, "Down to the Bottom".

I found the movie to be fun and exhilarating with some fine performances. There is a lot of energy here and it is an amusing film.

The DVD "is loaded with extras, including deleted scenes, bonus videos, unseen concert footage, sexy image galleries, trailers and four pages of liner notes, and is already receiving raves: James King of the Phoenix New Times notes that "'Tight has all the components of a perfect reality series," while The New York Post declared it "the best mockumentary since Spinal Tap!" The girls' raw energy pierces the screen and makes the viewer root for this most unlikely of rock bands even as they implode".
