

By Staff on September 20, 2012

Color Me Obsessed, a documentary about the '80s rock band The Replacements, has announced its release on November 20 via MVD Entertainment Group. This follows its initial screenings nearly a full year later.

The documentary, which will be released as a two-disc DVD set, features commentary from The Replacements' fans rather than showing performance footage. "I decided to present the band in a more iconic way," director Gorman Bechard explains.

Color Me Obsessed features commentary from such people as The Decemberists' Colin Meloy, The Hold Steady's Craig Finn, Tommy Ramone, rock critics Robert Christgau and Legs McNeil, musician and producer Steve Albini and many more.

Check out the trailer for Color Me Obsessed below.

Add a comment...

Comment using...

Facebook social plugin

<< Newer Post Older Post >>

privacy policy | about FILTER | magazine subscription | sign up for free newsletters