

Events
Beijing Punk

Posted on November 16, 2012 by MFW

Tweet 0 Like 0

Made in 2008 amid the Chinese capital's Olympics fever and shown at a handful of film festivals in 2010, Shaun M. Jefford's music documentary Beijing Punk gets a DVD release November 20 through the offices of MVD Entertainment. In this appropriately gritty, grainy DIY doc, the Australian filmmaker gets inside Beijing's small but committed punk scene, talking, drinking, and clubbing with the alienated skinhead outcasts of Misandao, Demerit, and other bands who reject both the Communist Party line and the materialism newly rampant in urban China.

RECENT POSTS

POPULAR POSTS

Color Me Obsessed: A Film About the Replacements

It Came From Memphis: A Music Film on the Very Extremely Dangerous Jerry McGill

MFW on the Road with Hit So Hard & Jason Becker: Not Dead Yet

Sympathy for the Devil

Rowena of Mr. Baker Talks PDU-ONLY Music Documentary

Tweet 0 Like 0

Share |