CIRCLE JERKS STORY TO BE TOLD ON NEW DVD

Filmmaker David Markey (1991: The Year Punk Broke, The Slog Movie) has endeavored to tell the sometimes seedy and often rowdy story of notorious L.A. punk band the Circle Jerks in the upcoming documentary My Career as a Jerk, due September 25 on DVD. Markey's film traces the band from its inception in 1979 when former members of Black Flag and Red Cross (now Redd Kross) teamed to tear the L.A. club scene into shreds. The director said, "I was at many of these shows, and let me tell you, there wasn't a tighter band in Los Angeles at the time. Making this film reminded me just how truly great they were."
