

TLA Releasing, 105 minutes, not rated,
DVD: $19.99

Francois (Deon Lotz) is a dutiful husband and father but finds himself going through the motions of a loveless marriage while harboring a life-long secret. His sexual urges rise to the surface around a charming family friend, Christian (Charlie Keegan). Francois soon embarks on a dark, unwavering journey of obsession that leads to a shocking and graphic conclusion. I assume that there are English subtitles, as this is South Africa's official entry for the Foreign Language Academy Award. No extras listed.

Blade Runner: 30th Anniversary Collector's Edition

Warner Bros., 117 minutes, R
Gift set BD with digital copy: $64.99
3-disc BD: $34.99

Deckard (Harrison Ford) is a "blade runner," a cop who tracks down and kills slave labor androids who illegally return to Earth. Also stars Sean Young, Rutger Hauer, Edward James Olmos, Daryl Hannah, Joanna Cassidy, Joe Turkel, William Sanderson, Brion James. After a 10-month moratorium, Ridley Scott's dystopian science fiction film returns in a new box set. Gift set includes 72-page art book, Spinner car replica. Also available in a 3-disc BD-book without Ultraviolet digital copy for $34.99. From the press release, there doesn't appear to be much difference in content between this set and the previous release, other than the 1,000+ image gallery. Be advised: Upgrade probably not necessary except for uber-geeks. Full review is here. Extras: alternate scenes, commentary, deleted scenes, documentary, featurettes, lenticular cover, outtakes, photo gallery, Ultraviolet digital copy.

Bloody Christmas

MAS Effect Entertainment, 90 minutes, not rated, $14.95

In a small town, the police are in search for a child murderer. Meanwhile, a has been 80's action movie star is attempting to figure out the meaning of Christmas as he plays Santa on a public access TV show. He fantasizes about murdering the people that do him wrong. Will he have the strength to not be on his own naughty list? Stars Geretta Geretta, Lloyd Kaufman, Robert Arensen, Robert Youngren and Steve Montague. Extras: cast interviews, deleted scenes.

Circle Jerks: My Career As A Jerk

MVD Visual, 95 minutes, not rated, $16.95

From the beginning, LA punk band the Circle Jerks were rooted in controversy. Formed by ex members of Black Flag and Red Cross (now Redd Kross) in late 1979, the band came to encapsulate the image, sound and energy of California Hardcore Punk. Filmmaker David Markey mixes in-depth interviews, rare live footage and historical perspective to illustrate the story of one of the most influential bands in the American underground. My Career as a Jerk follows the band from their early days and classic debut to navigating the independent label and touring scene of the 80s to the addictions, fights and injuries that forced their break up. Of course the story doesn't quite end there... No extras listed.

Crooked Arrows

Fox, 105 minutes, PG-13
DVD: $22.98
BD: $29.99

The ancient sport of lacrosse has been part of their tribal heritage for centuries, but the Native American players on the Crooked Arrows high school team are long-time losers. When former star player Joe Logan (Brandon Routh) agrees to coach the rag-tag group to seal the deal on a lucrative casino project, he sets out to turn the chumps into champs and, in the process, learns the value of loyalty himself. Also stars Gil Birmingham, Crystal Allen. Extras: commentary, featurettes

The Ernie Kovacs Collection: Vol. 2

Shout! Factory, 540 minutes, not rated, 3 discs, $29.93
Second collection of television comedy pioneer Kovacs includes the following:

8 More Episodes From Kovacs' National Morning Show