

REVIEW: INFECTIOUS GARAGE DISEASE - SELF TITLED

BY DYLAN CHADWICK

Posted July 23, 2013 in Issue 296 - August 2013, National Music Reviews

0

Download issue as PDF

Infectious Garage Disease

Self-Titled

Negative Reaction Records

Street: 04.09

IGD = S.O.D. - Sergeant D + Pre Crossover D.R.I. + Tesco Vee

Released in that pivotal time when longhairs started hitting the matinees and punx copped to liking Slayer (Hanneman RIP), IGD is as much Suicidal as it is Meatmen. I'd consider the blogosphere's "no stone unturned" fixation on unearthing every hunk of recorded plastic a good thing (OMG Youth Patrol tape?). That being said, I can't get down with EVERYTHING obscure receiving "classic" or even "cult" status just because it was made before Desert Storm. IGD is certainly more cult than classic, taking crossover cues and a smidgen of (shudder) gutter punk to make its mark. I'm slow to regard a song about pubic lice as anything "classic," but it's plenty solid. Good riffs, solid 'tude and a healthy fascination with all things gross ... nowhere near essential, but works on every level that it promises to. -Dylan Chadwick

Photos:

BOOK FESTIVAL
1025TH ANNUAL UTAH HUMANITIES

September 10th – October 31, 2013

Coming to your main street
www.utahhumanities.org/BookFestival.htm

Utah Humanities Council

local FIRST
UNION PACIFIC

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10th 6-10pm
AT THE UNION PACIFIC DEPOT 400 W South Temple

Click now to buy tickets, last year's party sold out!

Celebrate BOUNTY

The Official Launch Party
NIYA Model Management
September 21, 2013

Black Tie Affair / SLC Photo Collective
7p.m. to 2 a.m.
Tickets Required / Click Here to Purchase