Behind The Candelabra (HBO Films), the Liberace biopic directed by Steven Soderbergh, won 10 Emmy Awards, including Michael Douglas' Outstanding Lead Actor in a Miniseries or a Movie. The stellar cast included Matt Damon (as Liberace's alternately scantily clad and overdressed paramour Scott Thorson), Debbie Reynolds (as Liberace's mother), Rob Lowe and Scott Thorson.

Finally "liberated from the vaults," Here's Edie (MVD/Ediead), singer/actress Edie Adams' groundbreaking early 1960s variety show (later known as The Edie Adams Show) is available for the first time in a four-DVD set, with a wealth of bonus footage. During the run of the show, Adams' guests included Johnny Mathis, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Duke Ellington, Allan Sherman, Nancy Wilson and Bobby Darin, among others. The accompanying booklet features words of praise for Ms. Adams from Sandra Bernhard, Pee-Wee Herman (Paul Reubens), Shirley MacLaine, and others.
