It's the news of the year.

No, Miley isn't retiring.

Let the show begin . . . again!

The mega-bomb we all love, Showgirls, is returning with a sequel.

Of sorts.

Original Showgirls star Rena Riffel has taken her screen time in the original cult classic and spun in into Showgirls 2: Penny's From Heaven, an elaborate, erotic spin-off featuring cat fights, murder, new quotable dialogue and plenty of brown rice and vegetables in the film on critic insists "goes to a manic superstar level all its own."

Joining Riffel are other Showgirls veterans, including Glenn Plummer, Dewey Weber and Greg Travis, as well as new recruits to the Showgirls legacy Peter Stickles, Shelley Michelle, Ford Austin and Paula LaBaredas.

Here's a sneal peek: Las Vegas stripper, Penny Slot (Riffel), sets out on an adventure to become the star dancer on a popular television show. With stars in her eyes, she tries to find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow---but instead finds drama, danger and snuff movies in a town much more wicked than Sin City.

Penny's longtime fiance/boyfriend (Plummer) warns her that she needs formal technique training if she wants to be taken seriously as a real dancer, so Penny Slot sets out to learn ballet but she must pay the price to make it to the top.

There are sacrifices to be made at every imaginable level and it all comes down to . . . how badly do you want it?

This special edition DVD release of Showgirls 2: Penny's From Heaven includes a commentary with Riffel, deleted footage, behind the scenes and more.

Let the action begin!
