Blacklist Union, Matt Boroff & more

By Bob Suehs

BLACKLIST UNION

"Til Death Do Us Part"

Creatively this cd is solid with throwback hair metal style, hard rock riffs and strong vocals. The opening track didn't quite catch my attention but "Alabama Slammer" is where this disc picks up steam and overall it's a good record which includes a scorching cover of "Don't Change" by INXS.

Caesar & Otto's DEADLY XMAS

dvd

This movie is a fun low budget slasher flick and the premise is a dude gets freaked out by Santa as a kid and ends up doing some really bad crap later in his adult life!

I'm impressed with the overall quality of the film because it maintains the campy b-movie style while also featuring good production for an indie flick.

The plot is simple, there's nothing too complicated about this movie & you'll love it if you are not a fan of Santa!

MATT BOROFF

"Sweet Hand of Fate"

Musically this record is a mix of Led Zeppelin meets Everlast with the rock side being the selling point and the dark moodiness perfectly gloomy.

"Lost" kicks the record off with power and purpose while "My Black Heart" digs deep with emotion.

Sonically this record is audio perfection because it's not over polished, not super sleek with raw moments-a-plenty and overall this is a great rock record.
