"B. B. King: The Life of Riley" (NR, 2014, 123 minutes): Fellow Mississippian and blues lover Morgan Freeman narrates this warm film on the life of the great B.B. King. Famous musicians such as Buddy Guy, Eric Clapton, Bonnie Raitt, Carlos Santana, John Lennon and many others can be heard expressing their love for King's music. But the heart of the film is the story of King's meager upbringing as the son of a share cropper in the deep South. It's told by King and his siblings, cousins and distant relatives. That harsh life is what inspired him to dig deep into the stings of his guitar, Lucille. A highlight of the film is the music by King and so many other blues greats....
