TV highlights

Sport

Winter Olympics: Today at the Games

7PM BBC2

Curling, freestyle skiing (no, that doesn't mean shooting downhill out of control, arms waving) and short-track speed skating are among seven gold medals being decided in Russia.

Sport

Live Six Nations Rugby Union: Wales vs France

7.55PM BBC1

Wales continue their defence of the Six Nations title at the Millennium Stadium against a France side doing well to put behind them last year's poor showing. Several Welsh players now ply their trade in French club rugby, of course, and today's visitors blame their country's woes on the influx of foreigners in their cash-rich league.

Music

BB King: the Life of Riley

9PM & 1.40AM BBC4

Morgan Freeman narrates this documentary profile of the blues legend, but Riley B

King (his given name – hence the title) is on hand to tell most of his story. It was no “life of Riley”, King having been born on a Mississippi cotton plantation. Now 88, he first found widespread popularity with his Singin' the Blues album in the Elvis-charged zeitgeist of 1956.

Documentary

Ben Fogle: New Lives in the Wild

9PM CHANNEL 5

Ian Usher is an English former truck driver who sold his belongings on eBay and bought a small island off the coast of Panama for £30,000. Ben Fogle visits, helping Usher build jungle canoes, herd sheep on to boats and broadcast weather reports via a basic radio.

Drama

Nurse Jackie

10PM & 3.05AM SKY ATLANTIC

Kevin and Jackie clash over custody of the girls, with the nurse needing to arrange a more child-friendly work schedule to stop her ex-husband from getting Grace and Fiona full time.
